

Lakshman Dissanayake

Department of Demography, University of Colombo

vc@cmb.ac.lk

Lakshman Dissanayake is presently the Vice Chancellor of the University of Colombo, Sri Lanka. His substantive position is Senior Professor in the Department of Demography, University of Colombo, Sri Lanka. He holds a Bachelor of Development Studies (special degree) with First Class Honours, and a Postgraduate Diploma in Population Studies, both from the University of Colombo; a Master of Arts in Demography from the Vrije Universiteit Brussel, and a PhD from the University of Adelaide, Australia. He is also a Visiting Professor, Faculty of Health Sciences, Leeds Beckett University, United Kingdom and an Adjunct Member of the Australian Population and Migration Research Centre, University of Adelaide, Australia. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, United Kingdom. Professor Dissanayake also served as Rector of the Sri Palee Campus of the University of Colombo and Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, University of Colombo. He is a receiver of the awards 'Excellence in Research' (University of Colombo) and 'Excellence in Research: Highest Grant Recipient' (Committee of Vice Chancellors and Directors in Sri Lanka). Lakshman Dissanayake is also a member of the Research Advisory Group of the Department of Immigration and Border Protection of the Australian Government and a member of Migration Research Leaders Syndicate of the International Organization of Migration. He has published books, book chapters and numerous research articles in local and internationally reputed journals.